

First Grade News

August 24, 2018

What we're up to...

Spelling: Our spelling rule for the week is on the back of this newsletter. We are continuing the same rule from last week as we work towards mastering short vowel sounds.

Red Bird Words: it, his, has (Red Bird Words are like sight words — they cannot be sounded out)

Reading: Folk tales

Writing: Capitalizing beginning letters and the pronoun I, punctuation, and spacing

Math: Addition, Counting on

Reminders

Registration: If you received a green note this week stating you had not completed your child's online registration, please do so ASAP! Feel free to call the school if you need assistance. 501-450-4870

Math Homework: Math homework will begin being sent home next week. Students will bring it home on Tuesday to be returned by Friday.

Transportation: If you are changing how your child goes home in the afternoon, please remember that we must have it in writing.
